Disclaimer

Through grants, the Alliant Credit Union Foundation helps support nonprofits with missions that align with that of the Alliant Credit Union Foundation. The Alliant Credit Union Foundation's focus is to support organizations that foster economic empowerment, and takes a particular interest in programs and initiatives that promote financial literacy. It is against the Alliant Credit Union Foundation's policy to grant funding to organizations with missions that are driven by political or religious objectives. All grant applications will be subject to the approval of the Alliant Credit Union Foundation Board. The Alliant Credit Union Foundation reserves the right to refuse or limit the amount of any grant request at its sole discretion. The duration of the review process can vary and is determined by the Board's schedule. Please take this into account if your request has a deadline, and submit it in advance to allow for ample time.
